SHOW RULES

Only members of the Houston Cactus and Succulent Society and affiliated societies of the Cactus and Succulent Society of America (CSSA) may enter plants to be judged. All entries must be labeled only with their botanical names. Entries will be judged on their individual merit, not against other entries. NO peyote will be displayed or sold. A completed entry form must accompany each plant, dish garden, hanging basket, collection or educational display.

A trophy for the best educational display will be provided by CSSA. To receive the CSSA Award, two or more educational displays must be entered.

For a complete and more details on Show Rules, Classifications, Definitions, Judging Codes, Staging info, Judging Scale, and Awards Scale details, please refer to HOUSTON CACTUS & SUCCULENT SOCIETY SHOW BOOK (rev. September 3, 2023).
